Deputies Respond to Suicide in Crystal River Valley

Pitkin County, Colorado – October 20, 2011 – At 10:12 a.m. on Thursday, October 20, 2011, the Aspen Pitkin County Communications Center received a report of an unresponsive male at the BRB Campground in Pitkin County. The BRB Campground is located at approximately mile marker 60 on Highway 133 between the towns of Carbondale and Redstone. Carbondale Ambulance and Pitkin County Sheriff's Office deputies responded. Emergency personnel arrived on scene and discovered a deceased male. Further investigation revealed the male took his own life.

The male was identified as 57 year old Randal "Josh" Webb. Mr. Webb is a long time resident of the Crystal River valley. Mr. Webb worked as a stone mason, operating his own firm named Spider Masonry. Funeral arrangements are being handled by the Farnum-Holt Mortuary in Glenwood Springs, CO.

Per investigators from the Pitkin County Sheriff's Office, foul play in not suspected.
