Comments/Suggestions:

The Aspen Art Museum did a great job of meeting ZGreen event requirements with their July 4th picnic. All the food was provided in bulk with vegetarian options. Serving ware was all compostable, which made it relatively easy to compost. Stone Brewing Company was a green sponsor. No printed materials were distributed at the event, and the only giveaways went to those who signed up to become museum members. Educational signage was posted at the drink station in a visible place.

Thank you for working with ZGreen to comply with the City of Aspen standards.

This report card will be kept on file and referenced for future events. It will also be made available to the public and City Council.
