Comments/Suggestions:

Aspen Valley Ski Club's annual Fourth of July picnic was a great ZGreen event. Staff and volunteers were knowledgeable about the event's greening practices and could help attendees. All event sponsors gave away useable items. The bank was originally giving away bottled water, but once asked they put it back into the truck. Waste stations were set up correctly, and it was helpful to attach example items to the corresponding bins. The education signage was great! Food was served on compostable paper plates with compostable cutlery. Condiments were in bulk and a vegetarian option was available. For future years, waste stations would be more successful if staff is available to stand near them and help people understand what items go into the different bins.

Thank you for working with ZGreen to comply with the City of Aspen's event standards.

This report card will be kept on file and referenced for future events. It will also be made available to the public on the ZGreen website.
